

ATTEMPT TO BURN BUILDING

Bold Attempt of Colored Man to Set Fire to Building Here Saturday Night.

A few weeks ago by resident, an attempt to burn the drug store occupied by the Bassett Drug Company was frustrated by a clerk in the store going there a few hours after closing time and finding the lighted candles, powder and chemicals which had been prepared and placed in the cellar by a fire bug or robber. On Saturday night of last week the proprietress of a boarding house over the Maysville street store of Punch, Graves & Co. discovered a fire in one of her rooms at about seven o'clock, however, it was quickly extinguished without much damage. At about eight o'clock she again smelled smoke and rushed up stairs and found a blaze had been started again, this time a colored man was seen running through the hall and was pursued as far as the Baumont Hotel but managed to get away.

This building is situated in the central part of the city and if the fire had gotten a good start untold damage would have been wrought. The police are of the opinion that the party who attempted to burn the Lloyd building is the same party that set fire to this one as the buildings join each other.

A sharp outlook is being maintained and it is hoped that the guilty party will be caught.

ASKS FOR ENDORSEMENT

Mr. John A. Judy Seeks Nomination at Hands of Democrats of Montgomery and Menefee.

Mr. John A. Judy, who represented Montgomery and Menefee counties in the last Legislature, this week announces himself as a candidate again, and his card is as follows: "To the Democrats of Montgomery and Menefee Counties:

Believing that by the experience gained in the short time I was a member of the last General Assembly, I can be of more material benefit to this district and State, in the next session, than one without such experience, I have decided to ask an endorsement at your hands at the State Primary Saturday, August 7, next.

If nominated and elected I shall vote upon all measures as I believe will redound to the best interests of the Commonwealth and upon the leading subjects to be considered as follows:

1st. I shall vote against any bill which attempts to repeal or tends to nullify the present County Unit Law.

2nd. I shall stand for economy in all the departments of our State government and will vigorously oppose the creation or continuation of useless offices.

3rd. I am in favor of so amending the laws of the State that each class of property will bear its just and equal proportion of taxation and shall oppose any bill which even tends to place an additional burden on real estate, which already bears more than its just share.

4th. I shall favor such good roads legislation as I believe will secure to this district equal benefits, rights and privileges with any other locality, and which are so framed as to insure an honest expenditure of the funds and the elimination of all chance for graft.

In accordance with the custom in this district of more than twenty years standing, to give a member of the Legislature an endorsement for a second term, I most respectfully solicit your support and influence.

John A. Judy."

MR. SMITH DIES IN TEXAS

Former Prominent Mt. Sterling Man Dies at Ripe Old Age at Huntsville, Texas.

Relatives here received news late Thursday afternoon announcing the sudden death at Huntsville, Texas, of Col. Robert T. Smith, formerly of this city. Mr. Smith was born and reared here and was nearly 81 years old. He was for many years a leading undertaker and furniture man here, and many years ago operated a wool carding factory on the site of the present Catholic church. Mr. Smith owned considerable land near the city limits which he sold off in small parcels to colored people and the place has been called Smithville for many years.

He removed to Huntsville about fifteen years ago, where he resided with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Sallie Smith, widow of his brother, Lyle Smith. Mr. Smith was a brother of W. Halley Smith, who died here many years ago. He had been in ill health for some time, but was thought to be improving. Mr. Smith was an uncle of Mrs. L. E. Griggs and Miss Lucy Smith, of this city.

FISCAL COURT ASKS STATE AID

Will Ask For Maximum Sum of $12,000 in Effort to Improve Our Roads.

After hearing County Attorney E. W. Senff explain the new law providing for State aid for the improvement of highways the Fiscal Court at its meeting yesterday took a very progressive position by asking for State aid to the maximum amount allowed any one county under the law of $12,000 and instructed the County Attorney and County Road Engineer Crooks to take the necessary steps to secure same.

This year a special tax of five cents on the hundred dollars has been levied throughout the State for this purpose and Montgomery county will contribute approximately $3,500, while Jefferson county will pay into the fund about ten times the amount it can get in return and several other counties will pay in more than they can get back. The work will be done under state supervision and will be done upon roads which connect with a county seat, it being the general idea of the law to improve the highways of the entire State by improving the ones leading from one county seat to another. It is thought that the funds will be spent on the Camargo, Owingsville, Winchester, Paris and Levee turnpikes.

R. R. Bond No. 4 of $1,000 with interest coupons attached was presented to the court and burned. No other business of importance was transacted.

WHAT CONSTITUTES A GREAT TROTTER

What must a trotter be or do to merit the word "great to be placed before its name?

Some men use the word in describing a good, a 2nd. class or even an inferior trotter. Others go to the opposite extreme and rob really great trotters of a just reputation.

Am writing this with the hope of getting the opinion of men who are in a position to know of what they are talking, men who have developed or watched the development of trotters to such a degree as to be able to write a sensible definition of what it takes to make a really great trotter. I confess ignorance, also desire for knowledge, for though I love the business, and have been breeding and developing speed, and watching trotting races for 30 years, am uncertain as to the requirements of a really great trotter; yet when I listen to the opinions, both oral and written of men, whom I know never bred or developed speed, but who are so sure of their opinions, am more at sea than ever. To my thinking it takes a lot of qualities besides speed to make a great trotter. They must have stamina, to be able to stand the punishment, they must have courage to keep on trying every inch of the way. They must have intelligence to take advantage of every offered opportunity and above all things they must want to win and take pleasure in trying to do so. For example we will take the 5 year-old mare Sienna, 2:06 3/4, 4th largest money winner of 1914, winner of $17,800.

Have a friend who I esteem highly, a talented young man, a gifted writer, a hard worker, one destined to shine in his impression, yet he says: "Sienna is a good trotter, a consistent race mare, one to be depended upon for all she can do, but in no sense a great trotter," at same time he says "that Lassie McGregor, Margaret Druin and Peter Scott are all great trotters." No one denies greatness to these three, yet Sienna in her races was (some time in her career) able to beat each and every one of them, as shown by race summaries.

Sienna started in nine races, won 6, was 2nd in 2 and divided 2nd and 3rd. money in the other. She tried to win every race in which she was started, putting up a game fight in each. I never saw her but from all reports she seems to fill all the requirements that I claim a trotter should have in order to be great.

She met the best trotters of her class, both in the "Great Western" and Grand Circuit, beat them all in former, and more than held her own in latter. Her 1st. start was at North Randall, O., she beat Margaret Druin and a great field in 7 1/4, 8, and 8 1/4, 2nd. race was at Detroit, won with ease in 9 1/2, 9 1/4, 10 1/4, 3rd. race, Grand Rapids, beat Margaret Druin 1st, and drove her out in the next 3 with the $30,000, Peter Scott behind her. Her 4th race was the $10,000, Paper Mill Stake beating Lassie McGregor 1st. heat in 2:07 1/2 and was beaten by Lassie in 6 1/4, 6 3/4, and 6 3/4. This was the hardest fought, and most sensational race ever trotted for this much coveted stake. Fifth race was at Galesburg, easy for her in 7 3/4, 12 3/4 and 9 3/4. Sixth race was the $10,000 Empire Stake, Margaret won in 6 1/2, 6 3/4 and 8 3/4, Sienna trotting 3rd, 2nd, and 4th, dividing 2nd and 3rd. money with McClosky, with the great Lassie McGregor behind her. Seventh race was the noted Charter Oak for $10,000, Sienna won over a field of very great trotters in 7 1/4. Her 8th. race was in the "Great Western" at Milwaukee. She had to trot three sensational heats in 7 3/4, 6 3/4 and 7 flat, to beat a field of very fast horses. The 9th. and last race was for $5,000 stake at the Illinois State Fair. This was an easy win for her in 10 1/2, 9 3/4 and 10 1/2. In her 5-year-old form she met and defeated horses with as much or more speed than hers and the times she was unable to beat them she made them go the races of their lives to beat her. No one denies greatness to Lassie, Margaret and Peter Scott. Why then is not Sienna in the same class? I claim she is, and in some respects the greatest trotter of them all, for she met and defeated the best trotters of the Great Western, and they did not, meeting only the horses of the Grand Circuit.

Sienna is, as all great trotters should be, viz: a "great bred one," Peter The Great is without question the greatest living sire. Her dam the Widow, (3) 2:28 1/2, trial, 2:23, is now one of the greatest of broodmares and will be greater later on. She now is dam of Sienna, 2:06 3/4, Peter W., 2:08 1/2, Miss Stokes, (3-) 2:10 1/2, Maggie Onward, trial, 2:09 1/4, (dam of 3. Lola, trial, 2:10, Peter Montgomery, (sire of 1). The Great Widower, and Widower Peter, both prospective 2:10 trotters. Her two foals of 13 and 14 are born trotters, and her family is not yet complete. She is by Wilton, 2:19 1/4, her dam has produced 8 and her grand-dam two trotters.

W. E. Bean,
Mt. Sterling, Ky.

ARE YOU GUILTY

An editor a thousand miles from here met with the following experience! It appears that certain business men in the town where he conducted his paper discovered citizens going to their neighboring towns buying goods that they handled. On making inquiries, they found that their town editor, in order to meet his expenses and make an honest and respectable living, was advertising their goods for them. They at once prepared a petition protesting against this practice and with their names on it took it to him. The protest, however, was drawn on a letter-head of one of the firms that had been printed in another town. When he called their attention to this, the delegation left, sadder and wiser men, for they saw their own conduct towards their own printer had caused the home printer to look outside for financial help in running his business.

LOVE RETAINED

In our estimation there is no subject of more interest to womankind than that of retaining a husband's love. Of course when a young couple start to make the home nest they are surrounded with the glow of romance and sentimentalism, and life seems all rose-tinted. But by degrees the stern, prosaic side of life is shown, and for the first time they realize that life is not all a bed of roses; that there is bitter mingled with the sweet. Gradually they get accustomed to each other's society. He does not rush home as eagerly as in the first few weeks of their married life. One day he is much later than usual in coming home to dinner, and she is careless about his company, too; so she has gone out to see a neighbor; he has to go in the dining room and eat dinner alone. He means to go home quite early that evening by way of atonement, but unfortunately business detains, and it is a little later than usual ere he can leave his office, but he hurries home because he knows, or thinks he does, that someone is waiting to welcome him; but, alas for human hopes. When he reaches home instead of the radiant face and bewitching smile which he expected to see, his wife has retired; she feels so much aggrieved that not one pleasant word does she say to him. She means to teach him that his society is not of so much importance after all, and—well, he learns the lesson. Next evening he stops for a chat with an old chum, finds it very pleasant to resume past relations and be "one of the boys" again. And so that tiny rift within the lute has wrought discord in the once happy home. She wonders why he no longer courts her society as of yore. Let us whisper a word of advice right here. Let your husband know by word and deed that there are no hours so sweet as those spent by the fireside with him; that you prefer his company to all others. Make your home so bright and attractive that he will be anxious to spend all the time he can in the cozy little nook and last, but not least, make yourself as charming as possible. You need not think he does not care how you look. Oh, yes, he does, and you should curl your bangs or crimp your hair as prettily and dress as becomingly as when you were a girl and dressed to meet your lover.—Shelby Record.

MORE STRENGTH FOR OLD PEOPLE

Mrs. Hutchison—Eighty-One Years Old—Uses No Other Tonic but Vinol and Recommends it to Friends.

Greenville, S. C.—"It is with pleasure I tell others of the great benefit I have derived from Vinol, for the past several years. I am 81 years old and I find Vinol gives me strength, a healthy appetite and overcomes nervous disorders. Vinol is the only tonic reconstructor I have used for several years. I have recommended it to a great many of my friends and it has always proved satisfactory."—Mrs. M. A. HUTCHISON, Greenville, S. C.

Such cases as the above are constantly coming to our attention. If people in this vicinity only realized how Vinol invigorates old people we would not be able to supply the demand. It is the tissue building, curative elements of the cod's livers, aided by the blood making strengthening properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol, that makes it so successful in building up strength for old people, delicate children and for all run-down conditions. Vinol is also a most successful remedy for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis. If it fails to benefit any one who tries it we return your money.

NEW TREATMENT

FOR PNEUMONIA

There is much skepticism with regard to new remedies and new treatments for family diseases. The intelligent element of the population has become somewhat inured to disappointments in this line and is dubious about discoveries.

Two Chicago physicians, Dr. C. Morton Illman and Dr. William E. Robertson, have given out some interesting information recently with reference to a new treatment for pneumonia. They express the belief that this treatment, which they have applied with much success for a period of several weeks, will revolutionize the prevailing methods of combating pneumonia and will greatly reduce the mortality due to that disease.

Drs. Illman and Robertson have treated twenty pneumonia patients recently at the Samaritan Hospital and they claim that a majority of these patients recovered in half the time required under former medical methods. According to a statement by Dr. Illman the treatment consists in the injection, as early as possible in the progress of the disease, of a safe solution of formalin in a normal salt solution. The combination, it is claimed, act directly on the infecting germ and a crisis is brought about within twenty-four to forty-eight hours. This shortens the usual course of the malady by a number of days.

In one case, in which both lungs were congested badly and which was complicated by pleurisy, the injection is reported to have worked perfectly, having relieved the congestion within thirty-six hours. Ordinarily, according to Dr. Illman, this congestion would have continued for nine days, and, with complications, most likely would have proven fatal. In another case there was a still more rapid absorption of the congested lung, and a complete recovery of the patient was wrought in less than half the time possible under the old method.

So far the two Chicago physicians have applied their treatment only in the hospital because of the desirability of keeping their patients under constant observation. In taking the public into their confidence they manifest a disposition to make no extravagant claims and to keep no one in the dark as to the experiments they have made. If further experience shall confirm the beneficial results of the treatment material progress will have been made in contending against a difficult and dangerous malady.

Pneumonia is widely prevalent among all ages and all classes. A treatment which will shorten the usual course of the disease should bring about a material reduction in the incident mortality.—Courier Journal.

ASSISTANT FIRE

MARSHAL HERE

Mr. Edward M. Hite, Assistant State Fire Marshal, was here last week and made an inspection of the local fire department, the water works and the public school and praised Mt. Sterling's facilities for fire fighting very highly but made a few recommendations. At the school he suggested that chemical extinguishers be installed and Board will take the matter up at its next meeting. Mr. Hite will return here in a few weeks and make a few tests to demonstrate his method of fire protection.

ABOUT BAD ROADS

There are some bad roads in Kentucky. The rural correspondents are reporting that the mud is "knee deep and deeper" in many localities. But there seems to be bad roads elsewhere than in Kentucky. We were looking over a copy of the Little Rock, Ark., Gazette a few days ago and were especially struck by the numerous references to bad roads in a column devoted to clippings from the State newspapers. One correspondent says he drove from Round Mountain to Morriston and didn't find but one mudhole, and that was about ten miles long. There are sundry other references to the subject, the best of all coming from the Maytower correspondent of the Arkansas Farmer. That enterprising newsgatherer perpetrates the following:

"J. C. Duke went to Little Rock Monday. He said when he reached Marche he saw a chicken peddler whipping the ground with his black-snake whip. Duke asked 'what are you whipping the ground for?' The peddler replied, 'watch close,' and Duke said he did and in a short time he saw a wagon and team come out of the mud.—State Journal.

PEACHES KILLED

Mr. H. Van Antwerp, the orchardist, of Farmers, Ky., this county reports that the prospect for peaches next season is exceedingly slim. Peaches are borne on the new wood of last year's growth. The early half of last season was unusually dry and this growth of new wood and fruit buds took place to late in the season, that the buds went into winter quarters full of sap and not mature. The unheard of cold spell in December, when the thermometer ranged from 6 to 12 degrees below zero for three nights, and the work as an examination of the peach buds clearly shows. It is a rare thing to find a live one and that only on the short spurs near the trunk center of the tree. It is rather discouraging, but conditions responsible are unusual and might never happen again and no one unwilling to take a gambler's chance has any place in the peach business.

Apple buds are of an older growth and seem to have fared much better. Both crops however, are of course still subject to late frosts, this spring.—The Mountaineer.

SHERIFF HOWELL MAKES SETTLEMENT

Sheriff Harry Howell has made his final settlement with the Auditor at Frankfort, and received his quietus. He paid into the State Treasury the sum of $37,074.59. Mr. Howell has also settled in part with the county, paying into the hands of Treasurer Charles T. Hazelrigg, the sum of $46,277.90, leaving only the small sum of $2,905.34 yet to be paid which amount is due from the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad company as a franchise tax. The showing made by Mr. Howell in his first year in office is an excellent one, and he has collected all taxes due, except a small amount.

NICE COMPLIMENT

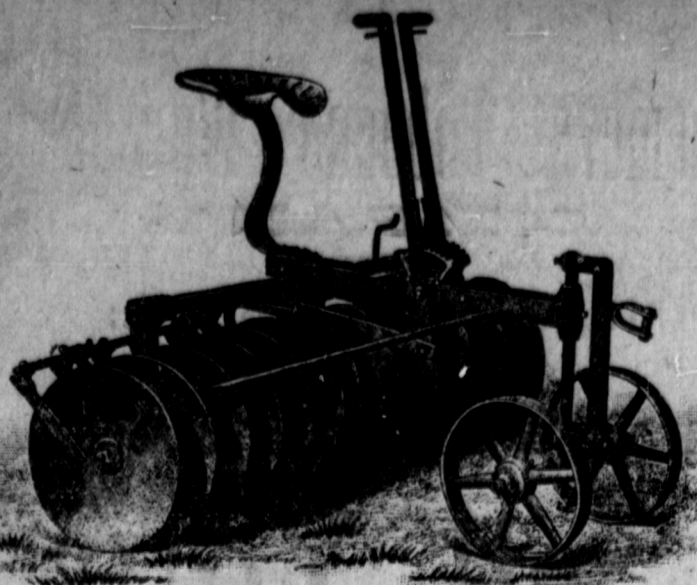

Senator Camden's refusal to get into the Governor's race has been received with an outburst of regret on the part of people all over the State which might well gratify any man, not to mention the friends who say that they will not take no, but will put him into the race anyway.

When I consider this, and Senator Camden's entire course in politics, it seems to me to be a very powerful advantage that comes to a man by simple, straightforward dealing with the people instead of trafficking with the politicians. The office of Governor could add nothing, either of dignity or honor, to the standing which Senator Camden already has.—Woodford Sun.

OUR DEBT TO EASTERN KENTUCKY

It is said that the last census would not have shown an increased population in Kentucky had not it have been for the great influx to Eastern Kentucky, owing to the development of the natural resources of that section. It remained for Eastern Kentucky to save the state from the black-eye of either remaining stagnant or falling off in population.

However, should we be called upon on the name the greatest service that this mountainous region is rendering to its brothers and sisters of fairer parts we would unhesitatingly say that is in relation to the good roads movement. Eastern Kentucky inhabited by poor, and some of them ignorant people, is blazing the trail in Kentucky for a greater and better system of highways, and it has never faltered when the call to duty came.

The constitutional amendment, providing for state aid, would have been defeated except for the large majorities rolled up in the Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh Districts.

The State Aid bill was introduced in the last House by an Eastern Kentucky man, and its passage was insured by the almost solid voting strength of Eastern Kentucky.

Only last week Grenup county, by a large majority, voted a $200,000 bond issue to construct the highways. Two of its neighbors, Carter and Lewis voted $50,000 each several weeks ago. Road bond issues have been tried in Central and Western Kentucky with little success. They were recently badly beaten in Todd and Trigg, and would, doubtless, meet the same fate in Hardin.

Eastern Kentucky people are not only alive to the opportunity for material progress which good roads offer to them, but they are setting as an example which is having its effect throughout the state.—Elizabethtown News.

Wed in Lexington.

Miss Mary McClure Fogg, of this county, and Mr. Fred Hinson of near Richmond, Va., were married at the residence of Rev. O. J. Chandler in Lexington Monday. The happy couple left for a bridal trip after which they will reside at the groom's country home near Richmond. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Fogg, of this county, and is well known and quite popular. Mr. Hinson is said to be a prominent young farmer. We join in tendering congratulations and best wishes.

Neutrality is a good thing—as long as it floats.

SHELLEY'S CURIOUS FAD.

The Poet Had a Mania For Making and Sailing Paper Boats.

Shelley had one most singular hobby, which he rode whenever he got the chance. The great poet took great pleasure in making paper boats and floating them on the water. So long as his paper lasted he remained rivetted to the spot, fascinated by this peculiar amusement. All waste paper was rapidly consumed, then the covers of letters, next letters of little value. The most precious contributions of the most esteemed correspondents, although eyed wistfully many times and often returned to his pocket, were sure to be sent at last in pursuit of the former squadrons.

Of the portable volumes which were the companions of his rambles, and he seldom went out without a book, the fly leaves were commonly wanting. He had applied them as our ancestor Noah applied gopher wood. But learning was so sacred in his eyes that he never trespassed further upon the integrity of the copy; the work itself was always respected.

It has been said that he once found himself on the north bank of the Serpentine river, without the materials for indulging those inclinations which the sight of water invariably inspired, for he had exhausted his supplies on the round pond in Kensington gardens. Not a single scrap of paper could be found, save only a banknote for £50. He hesitated long, but yielded at last. He twisted it into a boat with the refinement of his skill and committed it with the utmost dexterity to fortune, watching its progress, if possible, with a still more intense anxiety than usual.

Fortune often favors those who fully and frankly trust her. The northeast wind gently wafted the costly skiff to the south bank, where during the latter part of the banknote boat's voyage the venturesome owner had waited its arrival with patient solicitude.

Fine Finish.

The man who writes thrilling melodramas rushed into the manager's office in a state of great excitement.

"I've got it!" he shouted triumphantly. "I've got it!"

"Got what?" asked the surprised manager.

"Why, the sensation of the year. In the third act of my new play there is a mill scene. Harold Headlight, the hero, casts the villain down into the yawning jaws of two great emery wheels."

The manager grinned.

"Emery wheels!" he chuckled.

"Then, I suppose, he has a fine finish?"

"Yes, very fine. In fact, he comes out a polished villain."—Chicago News.

He Fooled Himself.

A station master who had been taking a short holiday at some distance from his own station went to catch the last train homeward and on entering the station found a lady trying to turn the handle of one of the compartments. The station master rushed to her assistance, opened the door, bundled the passenger in, slammed the door to and then, by force of habit, waved his hand to the guard and stood calmly on the platform till the train had steamed out of sight. He had to walk home, and the other station master laughed.—London Standard.

When She Made Cake.

"This is lovely angel food," said she, tasting the cake at the high tea. "Did you make it? Wonderful! I never tried to make angel food but once. I took all day to make it, walking very lightly while it was in the oven, hardly daring to breathe. Then when it was done I put it in the sideboard. The next morning they had to use a derrick to move the sideboard in order to sweep under it. That is, that's the story my husband tells about it. You know how husbands are."—New York Press.

Wonders at Dictation.

It was said of Julius Caesar that, while writing a dispatch, he could at the same time dictate four others to his secretaries, and if he did not write himself could dictate seven letters at once. The same thing is asserted also of the Emperor Napoleon, who had a wonderful capability of directing his whole mental energy to whatever came before him.

Ancient Rings.

Rings were given among the Romans on birthdays. The gladiators often wore heavy rings, a blow from which was sometimes fatal. The Romans had also their amulets and magic rings on which were engraved one or more stars, the head of Anubis, a sign of the zodiac or a human foot.

Backache

Miss Myrtle Cothrum, of Russellville, Ala., says: "For nearly a year, I suffered with terrible backache, pains in my limbs, and my head ached nearly all the time. Our family doctor treated me, but only gave me temporary relief. I was certainly in bad health. My school teacher advised me to

MORE TROUBLE FOR THE QUAIL

All permits for the importation of quail from Mexico have been canceled by the United States Department of Agriculture because of the discovery that quail disease is prevalent in some parts of this country.

Quail disease according to a dispatch from Washington, is a highly infectious malady and was first discovered in the United States in 1907. At that time it was traced to a number of States. A second outbreak of the disease occurred in 1912, but was checked by the suspension of importation from Mexico. Most of the quail sold on the American markets, it appears, come from Mexico. No birds were imported from that country last year, and only a limited number were permitted to enter this year, subject to quarantine regulations enforced by the Biological Survey and the Bureau of Animal Husbandry. Two consignments of birds, sent from widely separated portions of the country, were received recently at Washington for examination, and were found to be infected.

The presence of quail disease is one of the bad results of the failure to protect the native birds to the extent that general importations would be unnecessary. The native quail is a healthy bird, and the number of quail has declined not by reason of disease but because of persistent slaughter. The past several hunting seasons in Kentucky have been notable for the scarcity of quail, which once existed in large numbers in all sections of the State. Three or four decades ago the supply seemed inexhaustible, and talk of quail protection excited ridicule. At present there are localities where a quail is almost a curiosity.

The present winter has been the most unfavorable for these valuable birds because of the prevalence of snow and ice. If an infectious disease is to be added to the other conditions with which they have to contend it is to be feared the outlook for conservation is gloomy.—Courier Journal.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We are authorized to announce the following gentlemen as Democratic candidates at the State Primary, Saturday, August 7, 1915:

FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE

Hon. William A. Young,
of Rowan county.

Hon. W. B. White,
of Montgomery county,

Hon. B. F. Day,
of Montgomery county,

FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY

Hon. Chas. W. Nesbitt,
of Montgomery county,

Hon. W. C. Hamilton,
of Montgomery county,

Hon. B. S. Wilson,
of Rowan county.

FOR CIRCUIT COURT CLERK

Hon. Jno. H. Blount.

FOR MEMBER GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Hon. John A. Judy,
of Montgomery county.

HON. JOHN A. JUDY

In harmony with the custom which has prevailed in this the Ninetieth Legislative District for some twenty years to give to the incumbent an endorsement in the form of a second term, Hon. John A. Judy, of this city, has authorized us to give publicity to the fact that he will be a candidate at the State Primary, Saturday, August 7th, next for the Democratic nomination for Representative in the General Assembly, which office he now has the honor to hold, having been elected to fill the vacancy caused by the untimely death of the late Hon. Samuel Turley.

Mr. Judy outlines his views upon the leading subjects to be considered at the next session and we respectfully urge our readers to peruse his admirable card, published in this issue, with utmost care. He is a lawyer of ability, is thoroughly conversant with the needs of our district and State and being a gentleman of high character, no one acquainted with him doubts he will live up to every promise he may make the people.

In the last session he at once took front rank and it was not uncommon to hear persons familiar with legislative matters, remark that had he been a member for a full term, he would easily have been the most influential member of that body. It is therefore but reasonable to predict that should he be nominated and elected, he will be an admitted leader and already several members who served with him in the last session, are booming him for Speaker of the next.

Believing that there will be no district in the Commonwealth more ably represented than our own, should our party conclude to again favor Mr. Judy, we present his claims to his fellow Democrats and ask that they be given most careful consideration.

Coming soon—Charley's Aunt.

"CHARLEY'S AUNT"

To Be Presented
By The State University Strollers.

UNDER AUSPICES OF BOY'S HIGH SCHOOL CLUB

On Wednesday evening, Feb. 10, the "Strollers," the Dramatic Club of State University, will present "Charley's Aunt," a comedy of English College Life, at the Tabb Opera House.

The show is coming to our city under the auspices of the Boy's High School Club, and the proceeds will go toward helping provide an athletic fund for the boys of our own town.

When presented by the same company in Lexington at the Ben Ali Theatre a few weeks ago, the play was highly praised by the Lexington press, and was called the best amateur production seen in that city in many years. The Strollers will put their show on in several Central Kentucky towns; Maysville, Lancaster, Cynthiana and Mt. Sterling being among the number. It was presented at the Georgetown Opera House Monday night under the auspices of the Woman's Club of that city and was a tremendous success, playing to a capacity house.

The cast is an unusually strong one. All, with one or two exceptions, have taken part in past productions of the Strollers, and have gained recognition because of marked dramatic talent.

Mr. Leo Sandmann, who has the leading role, that of the "Aunt," has had important parts in every show the organization has put on since he has been in college, and in addition to his university training in dramatics, he was on Keith's Circuit regularly last summer. Mr. Sandmann will be remembered by many Mt. Sterling people as the tenor soloist, who appeared in the Glee Club here last year. The play is a rollicking English comedy, clean and wholesome, full of genuine wit and humor, and is sure to furnish an evening of pleasure. It was exceedingly popular in England and has proved equally so in America.

The story is of college life at Oxford, England. A boy receives a letter from his aunt saying she is coming from Brazil to pay him a visit. She is fabulously wealthy and has never seen the nephew and contemplated heir. He, with the help of his chum, plan a dinner in her honor, to which they invite their best girls. A telegram comes announcing the Aunt's delay. All is ready, they must have an Aunt.

Lord Fancourt Babberley is finally persuaded to impersonate her and help them out of a bad predicament. He does this with consummate skill and succeeds, by virtue of "her" reputed wealth, in winning—much to his chagrin—the love of two elderly susceptibles.

The real Aunt, Donna Lucia d'Alvadorez, played by Miss Katherine Mitchell, appears upon the scene, and things become interesting.

For Rent.

As executors of S. A. Duff, deceased, we will on Feb. 15th, 1915, at the court house door, at 1 o'clock p. m., in Mt. Sterling, Ky., offer for rent to the highest and best bidder the following:

A wise selection.

Immediately following the Literary Society a meeting of the Boy's High School Club was held. At this meeting final plans were made preparatory to the coming of the play, "Charles Aunt," which will be put on by the "Strollers," of State University. The play is a dandy and the acting would do credit to a professional company. Let's all go.

The Chautauqua Circle entertained with Mrs. Alice Perry, one West Main street Friday afternoon with a miscellaneous shower in compliment to Mrs. L. G. Cannon, of Georgetown, a member of the organization, who married a few weeks since and is here on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Lockridge. A special program was carried out. After the exercises a delicious lunch was served. Mrs. Cannon was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents from the members of the circle.

LIVING ON OTHER

PEOPLE'S MONEY

How many people in this community are living on their own money?

If the question was put to each person individually he unquestionably would answer that he is living on his own funds. And he doubtless would be entirely sincere in his statement.

But are we really living on our own money?

Let's dig down under the surface and see what we find.

For the sake of argument we will assume that you are running an account with the grocer, and the butcher, and possibly other merchants.

You pay, of course, but perhaps you make settlement only every sixty or ninety days. Some even pay their bills only twice a year.

Now was it your money that paid the wholesaler for the goods you are using and for which you have not paid, or was it the merchant's?

And if it was the merchant's, and you have not paid him, is it your money you are living on until settlement day, or is it his?

We contend that fully one-half the people are living from day to day on other people's money, and by doing so they are themselves directly contributing to the present high cost of living.

Now control your rising anger for a moment, and we will humbly endeavor to show you why you are keeping prices up.

The average mercantile stock costs several thousands of dollars, and it must be paid for in cash or the merchant must obtain a line of credit from the wholesaler. And when he buys his goods on credit he pays a higher price for them.

In turn you buy your goods from the merchant on credit, and he in self defense must add still an additional "safety" profit. In other words, he must charge more than a cash price in order to protect himself from the certainty of loss consequent upon slow collections, bad debts and other annoyances.

Thus two "safety" profits are added to the original selling prices of the article.

Do you see how it works—how the price is boosted?

If every customer paid spot cash for his goods the merchant in turn could do the same with the wholesaler, thereby securing from the latter a discount for cash of possibly 7 1/2 to 10 per cent.

And then the merchant himself would not be required to add the "safety profit" to his goods, which would mean another substantial reduction in the price of the article, and all because of the simple expediency of handling the cash over the counter.

Now doesn't it look as though this practice of living on other people's money is costing us considerably more than we are justified in paying for such a doubtful privilege?

It might require some slight inconvenience and a little temporary retrenchment in order to change over to a cash system, but if the merchant made you flat offer of fifteen or twenty per cent discount for cash YOU WOULD JUMP AT THE OPPORTUNITY.

Doesn't it appear to be to the advantage of everybody in this community to wipe out the baneful credit system and buy and sell for cash?

It certainly looks that way to us. How does it appear to you?

YOUNG COUPLE WED

Mr. Miles Mackie, of this city, and Miss Nora Kash Burns, of Nicholas county, were married at the residence of Rev. B. W. Trimble, on High street January 26th. The groom is a son of Mrs. Rannie Mackie and a young farmer, while his bride is an attractive young woman. They will spend several weeks here and will then go to Mississippi where they will make their future home. We extend congratulations.

The Evidence is at Your Door.

Mt. Sterling proof is what you want and the statement of this highly respected resident will banish all doubt:

"My health was very poor and I doctored, but in vain," says Mrs. F. Henson, of 21 Strothers street, Mt. Sterling. My whole system was affected and I was almost helpless. I had nervous spells, headaches and my sight was poor. I often became dizzy and had to catch hold of something for support. For several months my body was so badly swollen that I could not bend. I finally got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Duerson's Drug Store. The relief they brought me was almost instant and I continued using them until I was well."

REPARTEE IN THE PULPIT

A newspaper published in Calhoun county, Ill., publishes a story of how a minister of a small church in that vicinity evened up scores with his congregation, even to the point of verging upon sacrilegious.

When the minister in question arose to address his congregation on Sunday morning no one knew that a storm was brewing, but no one was left long in doubt that electricity was in the air. The minister began: "Dear friends, you do not love me, because you do not pay me my salary. You do not love one another because there are no weddings, and God does not want you because nobody does."

This was hot enough as a preface, and nobody was surprised when the minister announced his resignation. He put the joke upon the congregation, however, when he told them that he had accepted a position in the State penitentiary, and then proceeded to preach from the text, "I go to prepare a place for you."—Louisville Post.

NEW DEPARTURE

Selling Medicines at Half Price Under Guarantee of Cure.

After two months of remarkable sales, The Bassett Drug Co., the enterprising druggists, say that their plan of selling at half price the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and guaranteeing to refund if it does not cure, has been the greatest success they have ever known.

Anyone suffering with dyspepsia, constipation, liver troubles, headaches, dizziness, coated tongue, or the general tired feeling, caused by inactive liver and bowels or disordered digestion, should take advantage of The Bassett Drug Company's new departure and buy a bottle of Dr. Howard's specific at half price, with their personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

A large number of our citizens have been housed up with grip.

TOWNS THAT "DO THINGS"

Right under the caption of the Dawson Springs Tribune is printed in letters that may all be read, "The Town That Does Things." It struck us as a most admirable motto for any town or any paper. If a town prospers, the town paper is bound to profit in the general prosperity. The papers really do more for a town than any other single influence, and frequently get less remuneration and less credit for it. But a paper can't do much for a town that won't "do things." There has got to be a mutual co-operation if the paper is to boost the town.

But we like to know of a town that does things. In such towns you will find men who are ready willing to speak a good word to the stranger within the gates, to dig down in their jeans for money to maintain a live commercial club, and to use every effort to see that new enterprises are brought there and nurtured after they do get there.—Bowling Green Messenger.

HOMES DESTROYED

Early Wednesday morning of last week fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the frame residences of Will Bondurant, George Burkhardt and Wiley Stephens, located on the Camargo pike, about one mile from this city. All the contents in the three houses were destroyed. The loss will reach about $2,000, with practically no insurance.

MAY ENTER RACE

Friends of former County Judge John A. Daugherty, of Owingsville, have started a boom for him for Commonwealth's Attorney of this district, and it is said that he will formally announce his candidacy this week. Judge Daugherty is considered one of the strongest and most influential Democrats in the district.

JUDGE J. M. BENTON HAS ANNOUNCED

Judge J. M. Benton, of Winchester, has announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination to succeed himself as Circuit Judge of the 25th Judicial district.

Mr. Ben Cox has accepted a position as compositor at the Sentinel-Democrat office.

HIS TREATMENT IS REMARKABLE

Collard Declares That He Now Walks Down Town, Something He Had Not Been Able to Do For One Year.

High medical authorities assert that auto-intoxication is the foundation of most ailments and diseases. "This condition," says the Great Andes, "is nothing more or less than the slow self-poisoning of vital organs—produced by excessive mental and physical strain we are forced to endure, which renders the organs lame and permits toxins—actual poisons, to be generated within one's own body."

"Sometimes the trouble starts in the kidneys and sometimes it starts in the stomach or elsewhere, but in many cases the blame lies with the faulty methods of living and it is the more important organs that suffer the final damage, and when they falter or fail in their duties, the body fills up with poisons, and the victim yields to their baneful effect. Bright's disease, stomach and intestinal troubles, in fact may be called auto-intoxication, or self poisoning. A tired, draggy feeling of the body, or sluggish mind and dull memory, intense nervousness, headaches, stomach and bowel troubles, poor circulation, imperfect digestion and despondency, are common symptoms of auto-poisoning, and nine out of every ten people in the average American city are likely to be effected in this connection."

Ed. Collard, of 16 Gartner avenue, Louisville, made the following statement about Andes Great Prescription, the remarkably new preparation that is being sold through R. H. White & Co., and The Bassett Drug Co., of this city.

"My condition has been so bad that I have not been able to work for more than one year. I have been treated for Bright's disease and stomach trouble. Nothing did me any good and I was told several times my case was hopeless. Three weeks ago I began the use of Andes Prescription and my improvement started from the first bottle. It is the best thing I have ever seen, as the medicine is putting me on the road to health again. I look and act different, and there is no question about my feeling and being better. My hearing has also improved. I can now walk down town and back."

The medicine that did so much for Mr. Collard, is now on sale in Mt. Sterling by The Bassett Drug Co. and R. H. White & Co.

CONTINUES TO IMPROVE

Tobacco Market Continues to Get Better Although Prices Are Still Low.

Whitehall House

The sale at the Whitehall house Friday was a very good one considering the quality of tobacco offered. There were 124,000 pounds sold at an average of $7.52. This house had 140,000 pounds of their floor for Tuesday afternoon's sale.

Burley House

Manager Bean reports about 40,000 pounds sold at this house Monday with the prices on the lower grades much better. Crops averaged between $8.00 and $10.00 per hundred. There were few rejections. Mr. Bean considers this the best sale this house has had this season.

Farmers Warehouse

At the sale of the Farmers' Warehouse here Monday there were about 163,000 pounds sold at prices ranging from 2 to 25 cents, and the market was very strong on all grades with demand heavy and sales rapid and brisk, buyers seeming anxious for all kinds of the weed. Little tobacco was rejected and the sale was the best one that has been sold at this house since December. Among the crop averages quoted were Sam Laythrum, of Bath county, 3625 pounds, average $11; Owings & Peters, Bath county, 2790 pounds, average $11.36; Elgin Sharp, Bath county, 1015 pounds, average $13.68; G. W. Blevins, Montgomery county, 1470 pounds, average $13.55; Spencer & Lyons, 2035 pounds, average $14; Phipps & Thompson, 830 pounds, average $13.07; J. T. Ring & Co., Bath county, 3820 pounds, average $10.91; Tim Kerns, 2510 pounds, average $10.69; W. J. Ratliff & Gilvin, 2690 pounds, average $10.44. The sale was not finished until Tuesday and it was impossible to get figures as a whole. The wind-up however was as good as the beginning with market strong and active all the way. Quality and condition of the weed were better.

Robertson House

The Robertson House held an excellent sale last Friday, disposing of $2,010 pounds, and the sale was one of the best and most uniform that the house has had during the season. The market closed exceptionally strong, and prices were firm on all grades. There was little tobacco rejected and the sale was said to be one of the strongest of the season. Prices ranged from 2 to 14 cents, and while quality was not the best the prices were high considering quality. The Robertson House will hold a sale today and has 105,000 pounds of tobacco on the floor, with some of good quality.

MR. PATRICK SHERIDAN DIED HERE SUNDAY

Patrick Sheridan, one of the oldest and best known men in this county, died Sunday morning after a long illness of general debility. Mr. Sheridan was a native of Ireland, and came to this country when a young man. He was for many years engaged in the business of stonemason, and later took a position with the C. & O. R. R. Co. which he held for 25 years. He was an excellent gentleman and numbered his friends by his acquaintances. Mr. Sheridan was about 88 years old and is survived by seven children.
